A 2011 graduate of MSOE, Matthew Stachelski passed away suddenly on October 17, 2015 as a result of a fire at his residence. Matt had a dry sense of humor, creative wit, and was an exceptional athlete in hockey and cycling. He pursued many opportunities and adventures with endless curiosity. A great student and excellent and thoughtful writer throughout his life, he was a Technical Communications graduate who was loved and respected by family, friends, and faculty alike. He always helped others inside and outside the classroom.
